April 8, 1974

April 8, 1974 On the 25th Anniversary of No. 715

By Furman Bisher

It is a moment forever etched in the mind of Atlanta. Fifty-three thousand and 775 fans witnessed it live, but the rest of the city shared in the residue of it. Whoever can forget the sight of Henry Aaron rounding second base, in that familiar home run lope of his, to be joined by a couple of intruders, jackanapes who leaped out of the stands and loped along with him, blurring the occasion for the new home run king?

It was about 9:05 on the night of April 8, 1974. The left-handed Al Downing of the Los Angeles Dodgers delivered a pitch that Aaron returned over the left field fence, into the glove of the Braves pitcher, Tom House, standing in the bullpen. House would pitch eight seasons in the Major Leagues, and win 27 games, mainly in relief, and become a coach of some stature, but he would never do anything that stamped his name so firmly in baseball history.

The season had had a tempestuous beginning. Aaron had hit his 713th home run off Jerry Reuss of Houston on Sept. 29 the year before. Over 40,000 fans turned out for the last game the next day, not to see a team losing its 85th game, but hoping to see No. 714. Aaron drew a blank, but after seeing him pop up his last at-bat, these 40,000, in the dripping rain, gave him a standing ovation. Now the Braves were to open 1974 in Cincinnati, flying in just ahead of a killer tornado. Bowie Kuhn, the commissioner, had ordered that Aaron be in the starting lineup, not to be held out for the home series against the Dodgers.

Aaron played in the first game and did indeed tie Ruth's record with No. 714, off Jack Billingham at Riverfront Stadium, then sat out most of the next two games. Through fate, or whatever, the 715th was reserved for Aaron's Atlanta patrons, who filed out of the old Atlanta Stadium that night fully rewarded.

The story would be continued in Milwaukee, where Aaron spent the last two years in the place he began, County Stadium. The string that began in St. Louis on April 23, 1954, when he hit No. 1 off Vic Raschi, came to an end on July 20, 1975, when he hit No. 755 off Dick Drago of California, fittingly in County Stadium. Of the 755 total, 733 home runs were hit in the National League, 22 in the American.

Aaron was not particular who he included in his cadre of victims. He hit 'em off Hall of Famers just as he hit 'em off donkeys. He hit 'em off the Sandy Koufaxes and he hit 'em off the Alvin McBeans. In fact, he hit 17 off Don Drysdale, who was tough, mean and right-handed, and it's hard to think that he might have hit more off any other one pitcher. He did hit seven off Koufax, and he hit them off Steve Carlton, Nolan Ryan, Bob Gibson, he hit 'em off Don Sutton, Robin Roberts, Juan Marichal, and enough current residents of Cooperstown to make any man proud.

To zero in on the effect Aaron's record pursuit had on the economy of the Braves, we have noted that 53,775 were in the house on the night of No. 715. Only a total of 22,178 bought tickets to see the next three games of the Dodgers series. If you missed that exhilarating scene of Aaron rounding the bases in person, you'll be seeing it over and over again on television reruns. You won't be seeing No. 716, which he hit on the night of April 11, before 5,114 witnesses.

But this is the year we celebrate the 25th remembrance of No. 715, and a gentle man who graced the game he played.

R.E. Turner

Owner

As Vice Chairman of Time Warner, Inc., a position he assumed on October 10, 1996, R.E. (Ted) Turner III oversees the Time Warner cable network divisions, which consist of the assets of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc., including the Atlanta Braves, Atlanta Hawks and the Atlanta Thrashers. The Sporting News ranked him 13th in their 1998 Power 100 poll of the most influential people in sports.

Also falling under the TBS umbrella are the Cable News Network (CNN), Turner Network Television (TNT), TBS SuperStation, Headline News, CNN International, CNN/SI, Turner Classic Movies (TCM), Cartoon Network, Cartoon Network in Europe, Cartoon Network Latin America, CNN Airport Network, CNNfn, TNT Latin America, TNT in Europe and TNT and Cartoon Network in Asia Pacific.

Turner also oversees Home Box Office, Inc. (HBO), Cinemax, Warner Brothers International Networks, Castle Rock Entertainment, New Line Cinema and Time Warner's interest in Comedy Central and Court TV.

Turner became the owner of the Braves on January 14, 1976, when the National League owners unanimously approved the sale by Atlanta LaSalle Corporation to Turner Communications Group, now Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. Turner's ownership of the Braves, the Hawks and the Thrashers has helped bring stability to the Atlanta sports scene. He has turned over direct leadership of both the Braves and the Hawks to experts, including Stan Kasten, who serves as President of both clubs, and Braves General Manager John Schuerholz. The Atlanta Thrashers are run by Dr. Harvey Schiller, President of TBS Sports and the former President of the USOC.

Turner began his business career as an account executive for Turner Advertising Company (now TBS, Inc.) and, in 1963, became president and chief operating officer. Foreseeing the potential of satellite and cable technology more than twenty years ago, Turner forged a new frontier in the television industry. He transformed a small UHF television station in Atlanta into the world's first "superstation" by beaming the station's signal via satellite to cable systems across the U.S., starting in December of 1976. Because of their national exposure on TBS, the Braves have fans in all 50 states.

Turner's enthusiasm for sports and improved international relations led him to create the Goodwill Games, an international, multi-sport event held in Moscow in 1986, Seattle in 1990, St. Petersburg, Russia in 1994 New York City in 1998. The 2001 games are scheduled to be held in Brisbane, Australia. The 1986 Moscow games represented the first time that U.S. and Soviet athletes had come together in a major, international competition since the 1976 Montreal Olympics.

Turner revolutionized the television news industry in 1980, when he started CNN, the first 24-hour all news television network. In addition to providing in-depth live coverage and analysis of breaking events and comprehensive newscasts, CNN also offers a full range of programs covering the latest in business, weather, sports, entertainment, health and science news. HEADLINE NEWS was launched in 1982 to complement CNN's in-depth news coverage with concise, 30-minute newscasts updated 24 hours a day. Both CNN and Headline News received numerous accolades for their combined coverage of Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm.

Another of Turner's contributions to the cable industry was the launch of TNT in 1988. With a variety of high-quality, original programming, TNT is seen in more than 61 million homes. The service is home to many of Hollywood's greatest movies and high-profile sporting events, including the National Basketball Association and the 1992, 1994 and 1998 Winter Olympics. TNT also broadcast National Football League games through the 1997 season.

Turner's involvement in sports programming took another step forward with the launch of SportSouth in August of 1990. This southeastern regional network offers

Atlanta Braves baseball and Atlanta Hawks and Charlotte Hornets basketball, college football, basketball and baseball, auto racing, volleyball, golf, tennis and other major sporting events. Now FOX Sports South, the network is available in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, South Carolina, North Carolina and Kentucky.

Turner was born in Cincinnati on November 19, 1938. He attended Brown University where he was Vice-President of the Debating Union and Commodore of the Brown Yacht Club. He is known as a superior yachtsman, having won national and world sailing titles, including a successful defense of the 1977 America's Cup, the 1979 Fastnet Trophy and four Yachtsman of the Year awards. He is a 1996 inductee of the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

Turner is an active environmentalist and has received numerous civic and industry honors, including being named Time Magazine's 1991 Man of the Year and receiving the 1992 Governor's Award from the National Academy of Arts and Sciences. Turner is a board member of Time Warner, the National Cable Television Association, the Martin Luther King Center for Nonviolent Social Change, the Greater Yellowstone Coalition, the International Founders Council of the Smithsonian Museum of the American Indian and the Business Council for the United Nations. He is also president of the Turner Foundation, the Turner family's private grant-making organization, which focuses on population and the environment. He is married to community activist, businesswoman and former actress Jane Fonda.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman of the Board

Bill Bartholomay, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Braves since their move to Atlanta in 1966, has witnessed his team win nine division championships, four National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another N.L. West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and divisional titles in 1997 and

Bartholomay, involved with the team as a director or owner for 36 years, led a group which purchased the then Milwaukee Braves in 1962 and moved the club to Atlanta in 1966. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in several areas. He is a member of MLB's Ownership and Restructuring committees and the Realignment Committee formed in January of 1997. He began his second active four-year term as a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council in January of 1999, is a trustee of the MLB Players benefit plan, is a past chairman of the Commissioner Search Committee and a past member of the National League Executive Committee and the committee which recommended Bill White as N.L. president in the spring of 1989.

In January of 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area."

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is President of Near North National Group; Vice Chairman of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. and a Director of WMS Industries, Inc. He also serves as Chairman of the Chicago Park District Board of Commissioners, Commissioner of the Chicago Public Building Commission and as a director or trustee of many other civic and business organizations throughout the country.

Stan Kasten

President

Stan Kasten, 47, probably has more top level sports administration experience than anyone else his age in the country. In his 13th season as President of the Atlanta Braves and TBS Vice President for Sports Teams, he has become one of the most highly-regarded executives in professional sports.

Under Kasten's leadership, the Braves have evolved into one of baseball's most successful franchises. In 1998, Atlanta became the first Major League team to win seven consecutive division titles in completed seasons. Since 1991, the Braves have won more games than any team in baseball, four N.L. pennants and one World Championship and have twice set franchise attendance records.

Both Major League Baseball and the National Basketball Association have relied on Kasten's expertise in labor-management relations. As a member of MLB's owners negotiating committee, Kasten played a key role in formulating and articulating various management proposals and positions during baseball's last player-management negotiations.

Kasten's association with Braves and Hawks owner Ted Turner goes back 23 years. They met at a Braves-Cardinals game in 1976 in St. Louis when Kasten was celebrating his graduation from law school with a tour of Major League baseball parks. He soon was appointed in-house legal counsel for the Hawks and Braves and served as the Hawks' Assistant General Manager for two years before becoming, at age 27, the youngest General Manager in NBA history in November of 1979. He was named Hawks President in April 1986 and Braves President in November of that same year. He relinquished his Hawks' GM duties in 1990, when the team brought in Pete Babcock.

As the Hawks' President, Kasten has established himself as one of the top team officials in the NBA. He is the only person to earn league Executive of the Year honors in consecutive seasons (1986 and 1987) in a vote by his peers.

In baseball, Kasten has served as chairman of the Player Personal Development Committee and is currently on the Expansion Committee. In basketball, he has served on the NBA's Marketing Committee, the Player Pension Committee and the Expansion Committee and currently is a member of the Hawks Board of Directors, the NBA Board of Governors and the NBA Labor Committee. He is a former trustee of the Basketball Hall of Fame.

He speaks regularly to legal associations throughout the country and is on the Board of Directors of the National Sports Lawyers Association.

Born February 1, 1952, in Lakewood, NJ, Kasten attended Rutgers University before transferring to New York University (NYU), where he graduated in 1973 with a degree in psychology, earned magna cum laude honors and was chosen Phi Beta Kappa. He received a Juris Doctor degree from Columbia Law School in 1976, playing in the Jersey Shore Summer Baseball League during his law school years. He still competes in an over-40 baseball league in Atlanta.

Stan and his wife, Helen, live in Sandy Springs with their four children, Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice President & Assistant to the President

1999 marks the 25th anniversary of Hank Aaron's record breaking 715th home run. The Atlanta Braves, Major League Baseball, the city of Atlanta, the state of Georgia and baseball fans from around the world congratulate Aaron on an achievement that may never be equalled.

Since his retirement from professional baseball, Aaron has given back to society for over 20 years. His Chasing the Dream Foundation was established to help children between the ages of 9 and 12 realize their dreams as he realized his. The foundation gives grants to children to enable them to pursue advanced study in music, art, writing, dance and sports.

At his 65th birthday celebration in Atlanta on February 5th, Aaron was honored for his lifetime achievements both as a player and as a humanitarian. President Bill Clinton, the Commissioner of Baseball, Bud Selig, and Sammy Sosa were in attendance as Major League Baseball recognized Aaron talents with the introduction of the Hank Aaron Award. The award will be presented annually to honor the best hitters in the National and American leagues and will debut at the 1999 World Series.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back N.L. MVP awards in 1982-83. Among active players, Tom Glavine was signed while Aaron was in charge of baseball operations.

Since December of 1989, he has served as Senior Vice President and Assistant to the President.

Aaron, the greatest home run hitter of all time, was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writer's Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Only Tom Seaver, Nolan Ryan, George Brett and Ty Cobb have received a higher percentage of the votes cast. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; Most Total Bases, Lifetime, 6,856; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755. Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364) and runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), ninth in doubles (624), 11th in singles (2,294) and tied for 14th in years of service (23).

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 PM that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration.

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HR's and 30 SB's in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by The Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award.

He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron struck for his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972.

During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total of 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves.

Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three home run game in 1959 at San Francisco on June 21.

Aaron, a vice president and member of the Board of Directors of Turner Broadcasting and the Braves, is also the Vice President for Business Development for the Airport Channel. He serves on the National Board of the NAACP and the Sterling Committee of Morehouse College.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gail, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. He was born in Mobile, Alabama on February 5, 1934.

John Schuerholz

Executive Vice President & General Manager

Since 1991, the Atlanta Braves have the best record in Major League baseball (.757-.473, .615) and have won an unprecedented seven straight divisional titles. In 1998, the Braves set a franchise record with 106 wins. Since 1991, they have won four National League pennants, one World Series and several Organization of the Year awards and four times surpassed the three million mark in attendance, including a franchise-record 3,884,720 in 1993.

The team's successes are the result of an organizational commitment to excellence and a lot of hard work on the part of a lot of people. But, the Braves recognized the contributions of one individual and ensured that he would remain an integral part of their management team when, in March of 1998, they extended the contract of John Schuerholz, Executive Vice President and General Manager, through 2003. He is tied for the second longest current tenure with the same organization among Major League general managers.

Since his arrival from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, Schuerholz has proven to be a man of action. This past off-season he signed free agents Brian Jordan and Otis Nixon. Jordan's career-high .316 average placed him 11th in the N.L. batting race in '98 and Nixon stole 37 bases and committed only three errors in 108 games last year for Minnesota. Schuerholz also acquired Bret Boone and Mike Remlinger from the Reds in exchange for Denny Neagle, Michael Tucker and Robbie Bell. Boone hit a career-high 24 home runs and drove in a career-best 95 RBI in 1998 while receiving his first gold glove as a second baseman.

In November of 1997 Schuerholz signed free agents Andres Galarraga and Walt Weiss to three-year contracts. Galarraga posted his third consecutive year with 40 or more home runs and Weiss provided leadership out of the leadoff spot. Other players acquired before or during the 1998 season included Gerald Williams, Ozzie Guillen, Dennis Martinez and Greg Colbrunn. In March of 1997, Schuerholz acquired Kenny Lofton and Alan Embree from the Cleveland Indians and Tucker and Keith Lockhart from the Kansas City Royals.

Tom Glavine and Greg Maddux were signed to new contracts in 1997 after John Smoltz had resigned in the off-season, keeping three pitchers who have won a total of seven Cy Young awards together at least through the year 2000. When injuries weakened the Braves' pitching staff during 1996, Neagle was acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates for Jason Schmidt and minor leaguers Ron Wright and Corey Pointer. Terry Pendleton and Luis Polonia were added to the roster a second time and Andruw Jones earned his way from Class A ball to the Major Leagues in 1996. During the 1995 season, Mike Devereaux, Polonia and Alejandro Pena became Braves. Marquis Grissom joined Atlanta in April of that season. The Braves traded three minor leaguers to the San Diego Padres for Fred McGriff in July of 1993. Nine games out of first place prior to McGriff's first game on July 20, the Braves went 51-17 the rest of the season en route to a then franchise-best 104-58 record.

During the 1992-1993 off-season, Maddux, who had won the Cy Young award with the Cubs in 1992 and would win it again in 1993-95, signed with the Braves as a free agent and Smoltz and Glavine signed long-term contracts. Jeff Reardon came on board when the bullpen experienced health problems in late 1992. Pena joined the team for the first time in 1991. In the spring of that year, Pendleton, Sid Bream, Rafael Belliard and Nixon started wearing Braves uniforms. The man behind all these moves -- John Schuerholz.

As a result of the Braves' 1991 last-to-first performance, Schuerholz earned several awards. He was named baseball's Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend magazine.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later and, as an Administrative Assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first ever Royals roster. In 1970 he was named Assistant Farm Director and in 1975 became Farm Director. He was promoted to Director of Player Procurement and Development in 1976 and Vice President - Player Personnel in 1979. In October of 1981, at the age of 41, the Royals named him Executive Vice President and General Manager.

During Schuerholz's tenure with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship, two American League Pennants (1980 and 1985) and six divisional crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). The Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz the Major League Executive of the Year for 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz achieved a unique distinction - he became the first executive to be General Manager of World Championship teams in both the National and American leagues. Since he was named General Manager of the Royals in 1981, his teams have more wins (1,511) than those of any other active general manager in the major leagues. Furthermore, during Schuerholz's career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, he has been associated with three world champions (1966, 1985, 1995), seven pennant winners and 13 divisional crowns.

Born October 1, 1940, Schuerholz is a graduate of Towson (MD) State University, where he was an all-conference choice in baseball and soccer and was named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson State's Hall of Fame in 1973.

Schuerholz is active in YES! Atlanta, a program for disadvantaged youth, Camp Sunshine, a summer camp for terminally ill children, and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Gina, and a son, Jonathan.

Dean Taylor, one of the more highly regarded executives in baseball, was named the Atlanta Braves Assistant General Manager on November 1, 1990. When he came to Atlanta, Taylor rejoined General Manager John Schuerholz, with whom he had worked for ten years in Kansas City.

Now in his 24th season in professional baseball, Taylor assists Schuerholz in all aspects of the club's baseball operations at the Major League level. He is Taylor, 47, spent the 1990 season as Manager of Baseball Operations for Major League Baseball. He worked for the Royals from 1980 until he joined the Commissioner's Office in April of 1990. He served as the Royals' Administrative Assistant for Minor League Operations and Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development until being named Assistant to the General Manager in November of 1985. Taylor was a general manager on the minor league level for five seasons prior to joining the Kansas City staff, and was named Northwest League Executive of the Year in 1979 while serving as General Manager of the Eugene, OR club.

A native of Roseburg, OR, Taylor graduated from Claremont (CA) College in 1973 with a B.A. degree in Economics and Ohio University in 1975 with a Master's Degree in Sports Administration.

Taylor and his wife, Susan, live in Atlanta. He has one son, Chris.

Bobby Cox #6

Manager

HT: 6' 0"      WT: 185
BORN: 5/21/41 in Tulsa, OK
RESIDES: Marietta, GA

The Braves, with a franchise-record 106 victories, won an unprecedented seventh straight divisional crown in 1998. Under Bobby Cox, the Braves have won more games (757) the past eight years than any team in the Major Leagues. The seven divisional titles have led to four pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996) and one World Championship (1995). During the '90s, the Braves are 252 games over .500 (822-570). No other NL team is even 50 games over.

1998 was a year to remember for Cox, personally, too. He won his 1,000th game as a Braves manager on June 6 in Baltimore, became the franchise's winningest manager when he surpassed Frank Selee's mark of 1,004 with his 1,005th on June 16 at Turner Field against the Florida Marlins and won his 1,400th career game as a manager on August 26 at Houston. Cox is the 17th Major League manager in the modern era and 19th overall to win at least 1,000 games with one team.

His 1,418 regular season Major League wins, including 355 with Toronto and 1,063 with Atlanta, rank him second among active managers behind the St. Louis Cardinals' Tony LaRussa, who has won 1,564 games. Cox is 18th on the all-time list and will have a chance this year to surpass Earl Weaver who is 17th with 1,480 career wins, and Clark Griffith, 16th with 1,491.

Appreciative of his accomplishments, the Braves extended Cox's contract in June of 1996 two years through 1999. The club has an option for the year 2000.

The 1997 season saw Cox lead the Braves to a Major League high 101 wins and a baseball-best sixth straight division title. The team participated in a record 6th straight National League Championship Series, losing to the Marlins in 6 games. It marked the first time a team other than Atlanta represented the National League in the World Series since 1993.

In 1996 the Braves defended their World Championship against the New York Yankees. Despite jumping out to a 2 games to none lead, the Braves dropped the next four. Cox had guided the Braves to a franchise mark of 56 home wins in the last season played at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium.

Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, 4 games to 2, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise won a World Series in three different cities. The team won an NL best 25 games, including 18 after July 3, in its last at-bat.

In 1993, the Braves won a then franchise-record 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight divisional titles. The Sporting News named Cox N.L. Manager of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst to first, captured the first of two consecutive National League pennants and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several post-season honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978-81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. Cox began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in that season, lifting an habitual seventh-place team to within one game of attaining a 1985 World Series berth.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by going 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers of America, The Sporting News and the Associated Press.

Cox returned to the Braves as General Manager in October of 1985 and oversaw a farm system which produced many of the team's current standouts. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz General Manager in October of that year.

Cox spent seven years in the Dodgers' farm system before being acquired by Atlanta late in 1966. After playing in 1967 for AAA Richmond, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team that season, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in 1969.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. His teams never finished lower than fourth in his six seasons in the Yankees' system. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. After serving as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977, Cox moved south to manage the Braves.

Cox was born May 21, 1941, at Tulsa, OK. He graduated from Selma (CA) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley (CA) Junior College. Cox, his wife, Pam, and three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla, live in Marietta.

MANAGERS &
COACHES

Don Baylor was named the Atlanta Braves' hitting coach on November 2, 1998, after serving six seasons as the manager of the Colorado Rockies. He led the Rockies to a 440-469 (.484) record and a 1995 Wild Card berth. Baylor was rewarded for the successful 1995 season by being selected as the NL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA and The Sporting News.

Under Baylor's instruction the Rockies posted a club-record .291 batting average in 1998 and lead the NL for the fourth consecutive season in team batting. He earned an invitation from NL manager Jim Leyland to serve as a coach at the 1998 All-Star Game, his second appearance as a coach (1994). Baylor produced two batting champions in Colorado, Larry Walker in 1998 and Andres Galarraga in 1993. During his tenure, Colorado established several Major League records for expansion teams. The Rockies recorded the best six-year start, recorded their 300th victory in only their 613th game to become the quickest to win 300 and the trip to the '95 post-season marked the fastest by five years of any expansion team.

Baylor became the Rockies first manager on October 27, 1992 and guided the team to more wins than any previous NL expansion team in its first season, three wins shy of the all-time record, with a 67-95 record.

Before joining the Rockies, Baylor was the hitting instructor for the 1992 St. Louis Cardinals, helping to raise the team's average by seven points from 1991. He also served in the same capacity for the Milwaukee Brewers from 1990-91 and raised the Brewers' team average from .259 to .271. During the Brewers' 1989 season Baylor was a special assistant to the general manager.

Baylor had a distinguished Major League playing career from 1970 through 1988. He played for six different organizations, starting with the Baltimore Orioles and ending with the Oakland A's. He made three consecutive trips to the World Series from 1986-88, winning the Fall Classic with the Minnesota Twins in 1987. In 1979, while with the California Angels, he earned the AL MVP and The Sporting News AL Player of the Year awards after hitting .296 with 36 home runs and leading the AL with 139 RBI and 120 runs. Baylor holds the distinction of being hit by the most pitches in MLB history (267), breaking the AL mark of Minnie Minoso (189) and Ron Hunt's NL record of 243. He had double figures in HBP 14 seasons including the AL single-season record of 35 (1986) and he is one of ten players to collect at least 250 home runs and steal 250 bases.

For the last 19 years, he has hosted an annual golf tournament in Southern California to raise funds for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. In 1989 he published an autobiography, "Don Baylor, Nothing but the Truth: A Baseball Life," along with co-author Claire Smith. A native of Austin, TX, Baylor was a standout high school baseball and football player at Stephen F. Austin H.S..

Don and his wife, Becky, make their off-season home in LaQuinta, CA. He has one son, Don, Jr..

Pat Corrales #39

Dugout Coach

HT: 6' 1"

WT: 220

BORN: 3/20/41 in Los Angeles, CA

RESIDES: Big Canoe, GA

In his 41st season in professional baseball, Pat Corrales moves from first base to the dugout for the 1999 season. Corrales worked the last nine seasons as the Braves' first base coach, after joining the team as an advance and special assignments scout on September 24, 1989, and being named to Atlanta's coaching staff on June 25, 1990, two days after Bobby Cox took over the managerial reins.

In his nine years as a Major League manager, Corrales compiled an overall record of 572-634 (.474) with Texas, Philadelphia and Cleveland. His first job as a big league pilot came in 1978 with the Rangers, when he replaced Billy Hunter with one game remaining in the season. Corrales went on to guide the Rangers to third and fourth place finishes in 1979 and 1980, respectively.

He was named manager of the Phillies in 1982, leading them to a second-place finish; he was replaced in 1983 just after the All-Star break, despite leading the N.L. East with a 43-42 mark. Less than two weeks later, Corrales found himself back in the dugout as the skipper of the Indians, becoming only the fourth manager in major league history to manage in both the American and National leagues in the same season.

He remained with the Tribe until midway through the 1987 campaign. In 1986, he led the Indians to an 84-78 record (their most wins since 1968) and finished 11.5 games out of first place (their closest finish since 1959). That club became only the 10th team in major league history to lose 100 games one year and finish .500 or better the next, and he was recognized for his work by placing fourth in the A.L. Manager of the Year balloting by the BBWAA.

Corrales, who has been selected as an All-Star coach seven times in his career, managed at Alexandria of the Texas League in 1975, before joining the Rangers for three seasons as a coach under Frank Lucchesi. He played in the majors for eight seasons as a catcher for the Phillies, Cards, Reds and Padres.

Corrales participated in clinics conducted by Major League Baseball International and NIKE in November of 1994 in Mexico.

Pat, his wife, Donna, and a son, Patrick, live in Big Canoe. Pat has four other children: Rene, Michele, Patricia and Jason.

MANAGERS &
COACHES

Bobby Dews, a member of the Braves organization as a manager, coach, instructor or administrator since 1975, joined Atlanta's staff for the third time when he was named third base coach December 9, 1996. This season Dews moves to the bullpen for the second time in his Braves' career.

Dews worked in Atlanta under Bobby Cox as a bullpen coach in 1979 and as third base coach in 1980-81 and as first base coach under manager Eddie Haas and as third base coach for Bobby Wine in 1985.

Prior to rejoining the Major League staff in December of 1996, Dews had served as the Braves' minor league field coordinator since 1991, and, as such, was responsible for supervising instruction throughout the farm system. Chipper Jones, Ryan Klesko and Javy Lopez are a few of the current Braves who spent some of those years as Braves' minor leaguers.

Dews succeeded Hank Aaron as Atlanta's Director of Player Development in December of 1989, after having been the Assistant Director of Player Development for two years. He had been a roving minor league instructor in 1986 and 1987.

Appointed manager of Class A Greenwood of the Western Carolinas League in 1975, Dews spent eight of the next 11 years managing in the Braves' system, guiding five of his clubs to their respective playoffs. The AA Savannah Braves, who won the Southern League championship in 1978, earned Dews Manager of the Year honors. An infielder in the Cardinals' organization from 1960 through part of 1970, he actually began his managerial career in 1969 at Lewiston.

Dews, a native of Clinton, Iowa, graduated from Edison (GA) High School and attended Georgia Tech, where he was a standout basketball and baseball player. He earned a degree in English from West Georgia College in 1968. Bobby and his wife, the former Glenda Bolin, live in Albany, GA. They have one daughter, Dana.

MANAGERS &
COACHES

Glenn Hubbard returns to Atlanta for the first time since he last played for the organization in 1987. Hubbard assumes the duties as the team's first base coach after coaching the previous nine years with the Braves' minor league affiliates: Bradenton (1990), Macon (1991-92, 1998) and Richmond (1993, 1995-97).

Hubbard wore a Braves uniform for 10 of his 12 Major League seasons. In 1981 he set an Atlanta Braves' record for second basemen with a .991 fielding percentage. His most successful year was in 1983, when he hit .263 and set career highs with 12 home runs and 70 RBI and was also named to the NL All-Star team. Hubbard lead all NL second basemen in double plays in 1982, 1985 and 1987. He ended his career playing with the 1988 pennant-winning and the 1989 World Champion Oakland A's.

Hubbard, the Braves 20th round selection in the 1975 June draft, was signed by Bill Wight. Hubbard began his career with Atlanta in 1978 when he was promoted after being named Rookie of the Year in Richmond. In only his second Major League game, he participated in a triple play against Philadelphia on July 15, 1978. He hit his first Major League home run on September 23, 1978, off Cincinnati's Manny Sarmiento. On April 14, 1985, he tied a Major League record for assists in a game by a second baseman when he had 12 vs. the Padres. Hubbard holds the record with seven other second basemen.

This past season with Macon, Glenn was named as a coach on the South Atlantic League's post-season All-Star team.

Glenn was born on Hahn AFB in Germany and graduated from Lomand High School in Ogden, Utah. He was a four-sport athlete, participating in basketball, wrestling, football and baseball.

Glenn and his wife, Lynn, reside in Stone Mountain, GA. They have three sons: Jeremy, Matthew and Daniel.

Leo Mazzone #54

Pitching Coach

HT: 5' 10"      WT: 185
BORN: 10/16/48 in Keyser, WV
RESIDES: Atlanta, GA

Leo Mazzone has been developing pitchers at various levels of the Braves' organization since 1979, but nothing has given him more satisfaction than the past eight seasons.

The Braves' pitching staff has either led or been second in the Major Leagues in ERA each year starting in 1992. The 1998 Braves starting rotation of Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine, John Smoltz, Denny Neagle and Kevin Millwood became the first Major League staff with five 16-game winners since the 1902 Pittsburgh Pirates, with Glavine claiming his second Cy Young award. Rookie Kerry Ligtenberg took over in the bullpen to lead the team with 30 saves and 75 appearances. In 1997, Neagle went 20-5 and placed third in the NL Cy Young voting. Smoltz won the 1996 National League Cy Young award. In 1995, Maddux won an unprecedented fourth straight Cy Young award. Each of the four starters accumulated at least 35 starts and 220 innings in 1993. In 1992, the Braves set a franchise record with 24 shutouts and Glavine won the National League Cy Young in 1991.

Mazzone was named the Braves' pitching coach for the second time on June 22, 1990, the day Bobby Cox replaced Russ Nixon as manager. Mazzone had reached the Major League level for the first time in 1985, when, after an 18-year career as a minor league player, coach and manager, he joined Atlanta as a co-pitching coach.

After retiring as a pitcher at the end of the 1975 season, Mazzone managed Class A Corpus Christi in 1976 and 1977. He managed Class A Kinston of the Carolina League in 1978 and then took a position as a minor league pitching instructor in the Braves' organization from 1979-82. He worked as the pitching coach in Durham from 1983 to July 21, 1984, before winding up that season as Greenville's manager. He was a coach at Sumter and Greenville in 1986 and 1987, respectively, and served as Richmond's pitching coach from 1988 to June of 1990.

Mazzone pitched in the minors from 1967-75, with his best season coming with Class A Decatur in the Midwest League in 1969, when he went 15-10 with a 2.52 ERA. At AA Amarillo of the Texas League in 1972, Mazzone compiled a 2.62 ERA, but missed qualifying for the league ERA title by four innings pitched.

Mazzone co-authored a book over the winter with writer Jim Rosenthal entitled "Pitch Like A Pro," scheduled for a March release. Leo lives in Atlanta and has three sons: Anthony, Christopher and Nicholas.

RESIDES: Marietta, GA

MANAGERS &
COACHES

Ned Yost moves out of the bullpen and takes over the coaching duties at third base for the 1999 season. His first coaching duty was to pass the title of youngest member of the coaching staff to Glenn Hubbard. At 43, Yost is now the second youngest coach on the staff.

Yost had served as the Braves' bullpen coach since joining the Major League staff in 1991. Yost had spent the previous three seasons managing Atlanta's Class A affiliate at Sumter. While there, he worked with several of the Braves' heralded prospects, including Ryan Klesko.

The Eureka, CA, native joined the Braves' organization in 1986, batting .248 in 80 games at Greenville and .294 in 8 games at Richmond. A catcher in his playing days, Yost retired after the 1987 season, closing out a 14-year career at Greenville and Richmond.

Yost was the Mets' first choice in the secondary phase of the 1974 draft and advanced to AAA Tidewater before being selected by Milwaukee in the minor league draft in December of 1977. He made his big-league debut with the Brewers in 1980 and served as a backup catcher for Milwaukee through the 1983 campaign. Yost saw action in the 1982 World Series, drawing a walk in his only plate appearance.

Traded to Texas after the 1983 season, Yost spent all of 1984 with the Rangers before being released in spring training the following year. Within a month, the Expos signed Yost as a free agent and assigned him to AAA Indianapolis. He saw his final major league action when he was recalled by the Expos in the last month of the 1985 season.

Ned and his wife, Deborah, reside in Marietta, GA. They have four children: Ned IV, Josh, Jenny and Andrew.

Paul Snyder

Director of Scouting and Player Development

Paul Snyder, in his fourth year as Director of Scouting and Player Development, has been with the Braves' organization since he signed as a player late in 1957. Snyder spent 1991-1995 as a Special Assistant to the General Manager.

Snyder's playing career was slowed by a back operation in 1960 and, by 1963, he had become a player-manager at Greenville. After managing West Palm Beach in 1965, he spent 1966, the Braves' first season in Atlanta, as Director of Stadium Operations. He became a scout in 1967, managed Greenwood in 1972 and then was named Bill Lucas' Assistant Minor League Administrator the next season.

The Braves then promoted him to Director of Scouting in 1977 and Assistant Vice President - Scouting in 1983. Snyder, 63, and his wife, Petie, live in Lilburn, GA and have two children, Michael and Lauren.

Bill Lajoie

Special Assistant to the General Manager

The Atlanta Braves named Bill Lajoie, a member of the Detroit Tiger front office for 21 years, including nine as a General Manager, a Special Assistant to the General Manager in 1993. He had joined the Braves the previous year as a Major League and Special Assignment Scout.

Lajoie, 64, appointed the Tigers' GM in October of 1983 after moving into their front office in 1970, initiated several moves that led to Detroit's World Championship in 1984 and an American League East title in 1987.

Following an All-America career at Western Michigan University, Lajoie signed with the Orioles and enjoyed an outstanding minor league career from 1955-64. He scouted for Cincinnati from 1965-68, for Detroit in 1968 and managed the Detroit rookie club at Bristol, VA, in 1969. In 1978, he was named the Tigers' Vice President / Baseball, a position he held until being named GM. Lajoie resides in Nokomis, FL.

Brian Murphy

SCOUTING &
MINOR LEAGUE

Minor League Season In Review

Richmond Braves

Under first-year manager Jeff Cox, the Richmond Braves finished with a 64-80 record, 16.0 games back in the International League's South Division. Despite the subpar record, the Richmond fans were able to catch a few of the Braves' future stars on the field.

Wes Helms earned the team's Most Valuable Player honor with 13 home runs and 75 RBI. The third baseman hit .273 with 56 runs scored.

Helms was joined in the infield by second baseman Marty Malloy, who hit .290 out of the leadoff spot for the Braves. Malloy scored 75 runs with 25 doubles and a team-high 20 stolen bases.

Gene Schall was another offensive spark, with a team-high 22 home runs and .300 average. The veteran of two major league seasons (Philadelphia 1995-96) had 22 doubles and 73 RBI in 100 games for Richmond.

Jon Ratliff, a newcomer to the Braves organization, was named Richmond's Most Valuable Pitcher. The right-handed starter, who was acquired on January 19, 1998 from the Cubs in exchange for Ray King, ranked second in the I.L. with 143 strikeouts in 151.1 innings.

Adam Butler led the way out of the bullpen with 14 saves in 48 appearances. The left-hander finished 3-7 with a 3.60 ERA and struck out 92 in 100.0 innings.

David Cortes was another member of the Richmond pen that put up solid numbers. The right-hander went 3-3 with a 2.82 ERA in 29 games for the Braves. Cortes allowed just 37 hits in 44.2 innings and recorded 46 strikeouts.

It was the success of these players and the support of the Braves' organization that helped Richmond surpass the 500,000 mark in attendance for the sixth straight year.

Greenville Braves

Greenville had another exciting year under manager Randy Ingle and his coaching staff. The Braves' fans in South Carolina were able to watch some of the organization's top prospects make a run at the second half title in the Southern League's East Division.

One of the main reasons for the team's success was a pitching staff led by a trio of solid starters. At the top of the list is the league's top pitcher, Bruce Chen. The 21-year old left-hander tied for third in the S.L. with 13 wins and ranked second with 164 strikeouts in 139.1 innings.

Odalys Perez was another young left-hander in the Braves' rotation. The 20-year old went 6-5 with a 4.02 ERA for Greenville. Perez allowed 127 hits in 132.0 innings, while striking out 143.

Another important cog to the Braves' pitching staff was Micah Bowie. The right-hander was third in the S.L. with 160 strikeouts in 163.0 innings.

Jason Bullard was one of the Braves' weapons out of the bullpen. The right-hander had a 1.06 ERA and 10 saves in 17 games.

The offensive attack of the Braves was led by All-Star and Team MVP George Lombard. The outfielder showed off his power and speed, ranking fourth in the league with 35 steals (37 chances) and tied for fourth with 22 home runs. Lombard's .308 average had him 10th and his .410 on-base percentage was third best among Southern Leaguers.

Adam Johnson was another spark at the plate, leading the Braves with 77 RBI. The outfielder hit .253 with 19 home runs.

Mike Eaglin had a solid all-around year with 84 runs, 22 doubles, 30 stolen bases, nine homers, and 47 RBI.

Danville 97s

Danville was in a unique situation this season with two minor league teams in town. The Carolina League made a brief stop in the Virginia town on its way to its 1999 home in Myrtle Beach. During their one year stay the 97s went 58-82. The team finished second in the Southern Division's second half race.

Danville's strength in 1998 was a pitching staff that ranked third in the league with a 3.51 ERA. The 97s led the C.L. with 1,190 strikeouts and allowed a league-low 63 home runs.

The pitching staff was headed by the hard-throwing right-hander Kevin McGlinchy, who was named to the C.L. All-Star team. McGlinchy posted a 9-8 record with an ERA (2.91) that ranked eighth in the league. He allowed just 122 hits in 142.1 innings.

Rob Bell, who has since been traded to the Reds organization, led the league with 197 strikeouts in 178.1 innings. Bell went 7-9 and had a 3.28 ERA with only 46 walks.

Saving games for the 97s was right-hander Joe Winkelsas. In 50 games, Winkelsas posted 22 saves, which was good for fourth in the C.L.

Tyrone Pendergrass, who garnered the team's Most Valuable Player honors, was the other Danville representative on the C.L. All-Star squad. The switch-hitting outfielder finished among the league leaders with 143 hits (4th), 10 triples (4th), and 39 stolen bases (3rd). Pendergrass has since moved to the White Sox organization.

Mike Hessman provided the punch in the middle of the 97s' lineup with 20 home runs (T-3rd in C.L.). The third baseman also led the team with 63 RBI.

This season the 97s will become the Pelicans, as they move south to Myrtle Beach, SC. Their membership in the Carolina League will not be affected.

Macon Braves

The Macon Braves finished as the South Atlantic League's second half champions in the Southern Division with a 39-32 mark. The Braves were swept in their best-of-three game series in the playoffs, but it did not spoil a record breaking season.

Led by the league's Most Valuable Player Marcus Giles, Macon broke the team record for most home runs in a season with 173. Giles led the assault with a team-record 37 homers and 108 RBI. The second baseman was third in the S.A.L. with a .329 average and 166 hits. He finished second in the league with 38 doubles and a .433 on-base percentage. Giles led all South Atlantic Leaguers with 111 runs scored. Giles is the brother of Pittsburgh outfielder Brian Giles.

Jeff Spencer was another big bat in the Braves' lineup. Spencer's 28 long balls made him just one of four Macon players with at least 20 home runs (Giles - 37, Troy Cameron - 21, Jason Hairston - 21).

A.D. Thorpe provided some speed on the basepaths for the Braves with a team-high 21 stolen bases. The infielder hit .268 with 139 hits and 94 runs scored.

The sometimes forgotten pitching staff was led by Ruben Quevedo, who went 11-3 with a 3.13 ERA. In 25 games (15 starts), Quevedo struck out 117 in 112.0 innings.

Luis Rivera continued his climb towards the major leagues with a 3.98 ERA and 118 strikeouts in just 92.2 innings.

William Fleck, who was the man out of the bullpen with 14 saves, was named the team's Most Valuable Pitcher. The right-hander went 7-0 with a 2.85 ERA and 91 strikeouts in 71.1 innings.

Leonard Yankosky was another key ingredient to the team's pitching success. The right-hander went 4-1 with four saves and a 2.87 ERA. Yankosky allowed just 33 hits in 47.0 innings.

Eugene Emeralds

Eugene finished Northwest League play with a 24-52 record. The Braves will be moving their Short A affiliate from Eugene to Jamestown next year after a four year relationship with the Ems. Despite the poor showing in the standings, Eugene had a solid group of prospects.

Jerry Simmons was Eugene's most explosive player at the plate. The outfielder was among the Northwest League leaders with 11 home runs (3rd) and 26 stolen bases (4th). The South Carolina native led the team with 78 hits, 40 RBI, 131 total bases and 48 runs scored. Simmons' .275 average was third best among his teammates and his 14 doubles ranked second.

Gregory Strickland also had a solid season at the plate for the Emeralds. The outfielder, who was spending his second season in Eugene, led the team with a .300 average. Strickland scored 34 runs and stole 14 stolen bases.

Switch hitting Manuel Sanchez collected four triples, six home runs and 24 RBI in 60 games. The infielder posted a .259 average with 12 stolen bases.

Michael Corey became one of the most reliable arms in the bullpen for manager Jim Saul. The right-hander, who is a local product out of the University of Salem in Oregon, led Eugene with seven saves in 20 games. Corey went 1-0 with a 1.69 ERA and struck out 27 in 32.0 innings. Corey's Most Valuable Pitcher stint with the Ems was rewarded with a late season call-up to the Danville 97s.

Scott Sobkowiak started just eight games for the Emeralds, but his 3-2 record and 1.55 ERA could not be overlooked. The right-hander allowed just 25 hits in 40.2 innings with 52 strikeouts.

Danville Braves

Danville, who played host to a pair of Atlanta farm teams, saw its Appalachian League contingent finish with a 30-38 record. The Braves wrapped up the season 8.0 games behind East Division winner Princeton.

Danville fans were able to follow two of the league's most exciting players in Rafael Furcal and Travis Wilson.

Furcal was a terror on the basepaths for Danville, breaking the Appalachian League regular season mark with 60 steals. Furcal's 60 steals came in just 66 games. The second baseman also ranked third in the league with 88 hits and 56 runs scored. Furcal's .328 average was sixth best in the A.L. The switch hitter was named the team's Most Valuable Player after collecting 15 doubles, four triples, 23 RBI and a .412 on-base percentage.

Wilson proved to be just as dangerous for Danville's opponents this year. The infielder was eighth in the league with a .323 average in just his second season of professional baseball. Wilson ranked fourth in the A.L. with 87 hits and led the league with 39 extra-base hits (25 2B, 5 3B, 9 HR).

The pitching staff was anchored by Justin Willoughby, who proved to be one of the Braves' most consistent starters. Willoughby led the staff with 73.2 innings, while compiling a 4-5 record with a 4.03 ERA.

Doug Dent led the starting staff with a 3.61 ERA in nine appearances. The right-hander had a 5-3 record and walked just 19 batters.

Simon Birrell had a solid season out of the Danville bullpen. The right-hander appeared in 14 games and had a 3-0 record with a 0.96 ERA. Birrell allowed just 14 hits in 28.0 innings with 26 strikeouts.

GCL Braves

The Gulf Coast League Braves finished up the season with a 25-35 record, which was good for third place in the Eastern Division. The teenage laden Braves enjoyed their second season at the Braves complex in Florida's Disney Wide World of Sports.

Jung Bong showed why the Braves signed the 18-year old as a free agent on November of 1997. The left-handed native of Seoul, Korea was second in the G.C.L. with a 1.89 ERA. In 10 starts, Bong had just a 1-1 record despite striking out 56 in 48.1 innings. Opponents had just 31 hits and drew only 14 walks off of the young southpaw.

Joining Bong in the rotation was Johnny McGinnis, a native of Georgia picked in the fourth round of last year's June draft. The right-hander went just 2-6 but his 1.89 ERA was fourth best in the league. McGinnis allowed 40 hits and struck out 53 in 62.0 innings.

Closing a majority of the games out for the Braves was right-hander Greg Dukeman, who led the team with seven saves. Dukeman went 3-2 with a 2.32 ERA in 18 games. He allowed just 26 hits in 31.0 innings.

Another one of the Braves' high draft picks from last year's June draft was Ryan Langerhans. The third round selection out of Texas was among the team leaders with a .277 average, two homers, 19 RBI, 41 hits, 10 doubles, four triples, and a .439 slugging percentage.

Damien Jones, fifth round pick in the 1998 June draft, led the Braves with 15 stolen bases. The left-hander hit .271 in 50 games.

Scott Frawley led the team with a .287 average in 33 games. The right-hander had 11 doubles and 12 RBI.

He was signed in 1949 by Johnny Moore at the age of 17 and by the age of 20 became the Braves' regular third baseman. Mathews averaged slightly over 30 home runs per season during his career, 14 times he hit 20 home runs or more, 10 times he hit 30 or more, and four times he hit 40 or more. His franchise records include: most RBIs in a season since 1900 (135 in 1953), tied for most consecutive games with an RBI (8 in 1954), most career walks (1,444), most home runs on the road (30 in 1953), and tied with Hank Aaron for most home runs in a season with 47. The Braves traded Mathews to Houston in 1967 where he reached the 500 home run level. He was subsequently traded to the Detroit Tigers late in the year to help with the pennant chase and appeared in his third World Series. Eddie finished his playing career with Detroit in 1968. Mathews returned to Atlanta in 1971 as a coach under Luman Harris and replaced him as manager in 1972. He managed into the 1974 season accumulating a record of 149-161-1 in 311 games for a .481 winning percentage. In his only full season as manager in 1973, the Braves placed fifth with a record of 76-85-1.

Murphy was the Braves' No. 1 (and fifth overall) draft pick in 1974. Originally signed as a catcher, Murphy was moved to the outfield by Bobby Cox in 1980. The move helped as Murphy averaged just under 30 HRs and just under 90 RBIs from 1980 to 1990. During those 11 years, Murphy won back-to-back league MVP awards in 1982 & 1983, appeared in seven All-Star games, leading all players in votes in 1985, won five Gold Gloves, and appeared in 740 consecutive games from September 26, 1981 through July 8, 1986.

Murphy's 15-year career with the Braves came to an end on August 4, 1990, when he was traded to Philadelphia. The Braves received Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher, and Victor Rosario for Murphy and Tommy Greene. Murphy played in only 18 games with Philadelphia in 1992 due to knee problems and appeared in 26 games for the Colorado Rockies in 1993 before retiring. Murphy holds 13 Atlanta franchise records including most home runs (371), RBIs (1,143), hits (1,901), runs (1,103), and games (1,926).

He saw limited playing time until 1967 when he became a permanent fixture on the roster through 1983. Niekro had 14 straight years with 10 or more wins until the strike shortened year of '81. He posted three 20 plus win seasons with the Braves, with a career high of 23 in 1969, and logged over 300 innings four times, with a career high of 342 innings in 1979. From 1974-80, he led the league in innings four times and was never out of the top five. In '73 he pitched a no-hitter to beat San Diego, 9-0, on August 5th at Atlanta Stadium. He became the oldest pitcher to record a shutout (46) with a four-hit, 8-0 victory on October 6, 1985, against Toronto as a Yankee. During his 24-year career, Niekro made five All-Star appearances, four as a Brave, won five Gold Gloves, and won 318 games, ranking him 14th all-time. ## The Braves in the World Series

1914 -- Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves", who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 -- Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves, under Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 -- Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 -- New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 -- Minnesota 4 games, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic of the first order. Four of the last five games were decided on the final pitch and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he singled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice more in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first player in N.L. Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 -- Toronto 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (last three setbacks to Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's 6th-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a come-from-behind 5-4 win, sparked by a 9th-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of three runs over Games 3&4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the 9th on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8x15) with five stolen bases.

1995 -- Atlanta 4 games, Cleveland 2

The Braves affirmed their standing as baseball's team of the 1990's by capturing Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic right-field home run blast in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him 25 post-season hits (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS), the most ever in a post-season. Grissom hit safely in all 14-post season contests, the longest batting streak ever in one post-season. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the post-season 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for post-season hits by a rookie. Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the 1995 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston in 1914 and Milwaukee in 1957.

1996 -- New York 4 games, Atlanta 2

All signs pointed towards a second straight world championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two AB in game one (3 x 4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in Game 2, 4-0, allowing only 6 hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, 2 were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had 3 RBI in game 2, after getting 2 in game one, to give him 15 RBI for the post-season, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the post-season. Including the final three victories over the Cards in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a 2-run homer in the 8th inning of game three, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In Game 4, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but three Yankee runs in the frame cut Atlanta's lead in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the 8th, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a 3-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz in game five, 1-0, the only score coming on a 4th-inning unearned run. The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for 3 runs in the 3rd in their 3-2 victory. The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroics on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

The Braves in the Championship Series

1969 -- New York 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 77 percent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves.

1982 -- St. Louis 3 games, Atlanta 0

First-year manager Joe Torre got the Braves off to a Major League record 13 consecutive wins at the start of the season en route to the club's first divisional title in 13 years. St. Louis swept the Braves in the Championship Series as Atlanta was outscored 17-5 in the three games.

1991 -- Atlanta 4 games, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games 2 and 6; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game 7 in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 ERA against the league's top offense.

1992 -- Atlanta 4 games, Pittsburgh 3

Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the 9th scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win over Pittsburgh in Game 7. NLCS MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Bucs in Game 2. The Pirates captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Lincecum's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for the Game 7 drama. With their improbable 9th-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive post-season game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 -- Philadelphia 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueled John Smoltz in Game 4, to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer, that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves in defeat with a .435 batting average.

1995 -- Atlanta 4 games, Cincinnati 0

The Braves returned as the National League representative in the World Series for the third time in the last four fall classics by sweeping the Reds, the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game, 1-1, in the top of the ninth. Eventual MVP winner Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10 innings at Riverfront, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a 3-run home run in the 10th. Back in Atlanta in Game 3, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4, with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a 3-run home run to lead the Braves. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout, avenging a sub-par regular season for him. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right-fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

1996 -- Atlanta 4 games, St. Louis 3

The Braves added another chapter to their post-season saga of the '90s by becoming the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS by crushing the Cardinals, 32-1, over the final three games. Game one saw Javy Lopez break a 2-2 tie in the 8th with a bases-loaded, 2-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 victory behind John Smoltz (8.0 IP, 5 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 2 BB, 6 K). Chipper Jones led the Braves' attack by going 4 x 4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his 4th save in 4 appearances in the '96 post-season. The momentum in the series shifted in game two when Gary Gaetti's 7th-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux turned a 4-3 Cards' lead into a comfortable 8-3 victory. In Game 3 Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. Atlanta seemed to be in control in Game 4, leading 3-0 behind Denny Neagle with 2 outs and no one on in the St. Louis 7th, but before the 3rd out the Redbirds fought back to tie the score and claim the lead for good in the 8th on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. With their backs to the wall in Game 5, the Braves struck for five 1st-inning runs en route to a 14-0 rout, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez led the Braves' attack by going 4 x 5 with 2 doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added 4 hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. Game 6 was vintage Maddux as the four-time Cy Young winner blanked the Cardinals through 7.0 innings en route to a 3-1 win. Maddux (7.2 IP, 6 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 0 BB, 7 K) teamed with Wohlers (2nd save of LCS) to hold the Cards in check; Wohlers' 8th-inning wild pitch accounted for the only run allowed by the Braves over the last three games. In Game 7 the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored 6 in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's 3-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 finale broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent the Braves to their fourth World Series out of the last five played. The Braves became the first NL club to win 4 pennants in 5 completed seasons since the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1952-53-55-56. Lopez was named series MVP after batting .542 (13 x 24) with 5 doubles, 2 homers and 6 RBI.

1997 -- Florida 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves, appearing in a record 6th straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outhitting Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only 1 unearned run all season, took the loss in Game 1 when the Marlins reached him for 5 runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cather and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to 3 hits in a 7-1 victory in Game 2, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in Game 3, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a 3-run double off John Smoltz in the 6th inning. Game 4 saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on 4 hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series at 2 games apiece. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only 5 hits. Liván Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in Game 5, allowing only 3 hits and notching a NLCS record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in Game 6, sparked by a 4-run 1st inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves in defeat by hitting .500 (8 x 16) in 5 games.

1998 -- San Diego 4 games, Atlanta 2

Atlanta fought back from a 3 games to none deficit, but fell short of an unprecedented comeback as the Padres prevailed in 6 games. Braves entered bottom of 9th of Game 1 trailing 2-1, before tying the game against star closer Trevor Hoffman on Andruw Jones' sacrifice fly. Ken Caminiti responded in the top of the 10th with a solo shot off Kerry Ligtenberg, giving the Padres a 3-2 victory. Kevin Brown gave the Padres a spectacular effort in Game 2, holding the Braves to three singles in a 3-0 triumph, marking the first time since 1969 the Braves had dropped the first 2 games of an NLCS at home. Atlanta's offense didn't benefit immediately with the change of scenery as the series moved west, with San Diego taking a commanding three games to none lead with a 4-1 victory over a Braves squad that had managed only three runs over the first 28 innings of the series. Clutch hitting remained elusive, with the Braves loading the bases three times in Game 3 without managing to score in any of those opportunities. Atlanta appeared to be on the verge of being swept in Game 4 when, trailing 3-2 entering the seventh inning, the offense finally awoke with a six-run outburst, with an Andres Galarraga grand slam capping the 8-3 win. Braves repeated late-inning heroics in the eighth inning of Game 5 when Michael Tucker erased a 4-2 deficit with a 3-run homer off Kevin Brown, who was appearing in a rare relief role for the Padres. Atlanta took a 3-run lead into bottom of the ninth, but a 2-run homer by Padres' pinch-hitter Greg Myers sliced the margin to a single run. Greg Maddux came out to make his first relief appearance since 1987 and set the Padres down in order to register his first professional save. Upon return of series to Atlanta, the offense once again went dormant, as LCS MVP Sterling Hitchcock and four relievers stopped the Braves in Game 6 on two hits, 5-0, with all runs crossing the plate in the sixth inning, as Tom Glavine was victimized by three unearned runs. Failure to produce any type of offense at home sealed the Braves' fate, with the team being held to two runs in 28 innings at Turner Field, with Padres hurlers holding the Braves scoreless over the final 19 frames.

The Braves in the Division Series

1995 -- Atlanta 3 games, Colorado 1

In the first year of the expanded playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Colorado's Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won, 5-4. Rookie-of-the-Year candidate Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing, 4-3, entering the ninth inning. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two home runs and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Staff ace Greg Maddux, Grissom, and Fred McGriff teamed to lead the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for post-season hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 -- Atlanta 3 games, Los Angeles 0

Although the Braves hit only .180 and were held to 10 runs, Atlanta nonetheless swept the Dodgers in 3 games, as the staff allowed only 3 ER in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). Game one in LA saw the Braves continue their '90s tradition of one-run games in the post-season as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer lifted the team to a 2-1 victory. John Smoltz (9.0 IP, 4 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K) received the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched a scoreless 10th inning for the save. In Game 2 the Braves trailed 2-1 before Fred McGriff's HR leading off the seventh inning tied the game and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit another roundtripper to account for the games' final run. Greg Maddux allowed only 2 unearned runs in 7.0 IP to earn the win, and Wohlers recorded his 2nd save in 2 games, as the Braves headed back to Atlanta with a two-games-to-none lead. The Braves completed a three-game sweep as Tom Glavine (6.2 IP, 1 ER) and Chipper Jones (2-run homer) led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph. Jones' blast followed a 2-run double by Mark Lemke, capped a 4-run 4th inning to give the Braves a 5-0 lead, and knocked out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo. The victory sent the Braves to their fifth straight NLCS.

1997-- Atlanta 3 games, Houston 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, this time taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, while outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game 1 saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux (9.0 IP, 7 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 6 K) in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a homer by Ryan Klesko in the 2nd inning. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, as the offense broke a 3-3 tie with 3 runs in the 5th and 5 more in the 6th. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks from Astros pitching, including 8 issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves applied the knockout blow to the Astros in Game 3 at Houston as John Smoltz went the distance in a dominating effort (9.0 IP, 3 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 11 K), taking a 4-1 decision. For the series, Braves starters Maddux-Glavine-Smoltz combined for a 1.87 ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP). The Braves' offense, despite being held to a .217 BA, posted 19 runs with their 20 hits.

1998-- Atlanta 3 games, Chicago 0

For the third straight season, the Braves recorded a sweep in the Division Series, this time over the Cubs. Dating back to the final game of the 1995 first-round series vs. the Rockies, the Braves have posted 10 straight wins in Division Series competition. Michael Tucker's two-run homer proved to be all the support needed by John Smoltz (7.2 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 0 BB, 6 K) in Game 1, as the Braves cruised to a 7-1 victory. Ryan Klesko's seventh-inning grand slam accounted for Atlanta's final four tallies. Game 2 featured a classic pitching duel between Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 3 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 8 K) and Kevin Tapani, with the Cubs clinging to a 1-0 lead entering the bottom of the ninth. Javy Lopez then blasted a one-out homer, sending the contest into extra innings. In the bottom of the 10th, Chipper Jones delivered a one-out single to plate the winning run and send the Braves to Chicago with a 2-0 series lead. Former Cub Greg Maddux and rookie phenom Kerry Wood faced off in Game 3. Maddux, who led off the third with a double and came around to score on a passed ball, clung to a 1-0 lead through seven innings. The Braves put the game out of reach with a five-run eighth, highlighted by an Eddie Perez grand slam. The Cubs touched Maddux for two runs in the eighth (7.0 IP, 7 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 4 K), but Kerry Ligtenberg came on to pitch two scoreless innings and send the Braves to their record seventh straight NLCS.

Braves History

1901- In the first year of so-called "modern" baseball, meaning the American League made its official major league entry, the Boston team finished fifth. They were led by Kid Nichols, who won 20 games as a pitcher and also played the outfield and first base.

1902-Vic Willis and Togie Pittinger each won 27 games, but the club finished third.

1912-The team acquires the nickname "Braves" for the first time at the suggestion of Johnny Montgomery Ward. Before that, the team had been known as the Doves because of its owners, the Dovey brothers. It was also known as the Beaneaters and the Red Caps.

1914-The Braves completed their miracle finish by coming from last on July 18 to win the N.L. pennant. They won 34 of 44 games in their drive to the top and finished an astonishing 10.5 games in front of the second place Giants. The Braves then swept four from heavily favored Philadelphia to win the World Series. Johnny Evers won the MVP award.

1928-Rogers Hornsby, playing for his third team in three years, hit .387 for the Braves and easily won the N.L. batting title.

1935-Babe Ruth finished his career in a Braves uniform. Ruth homered in his first N.L. at-bat, off Carl Hubbell, but batted only .181 and, after seven more homers for a career total of 714, removed himself from the lineup in June and officially retired as a player.

1936-The Braves' name was changed to the Bees as a result of a fan poll. Five years later the club readopted the nickname of the Braves.

1938-Casey Stengel managed his first of six Braves teams.

1947-Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn each won 21 games for the third-place Braves. The team exceeded one million in attendance (1,277,361) for the first time. Bob Elliott won MVP.

1948-This is the year that produced the phrase "Spahn and Sain and two days of rain" as Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain combined for 39 wins. Sain had a league-high 24 as the Braves won the pennant but lost to Cleveland in the World Series. Al Dark batted .322 to lead the Braves in the regular season while winning the Rookie-of-the-Year award.

1950-Centerfielder Sam Jethroe won the Rookie-of-the-Year award.

1952-Eddie Mathews became the first rookie in major league history to hit 3 home runs in a game, accomplishing it on September 27.

1953-The Braves played their first season in Milwaukee, attracting a National League-record 1,826,297 fans, and finished second. Eddie Mathews won the home run title with 47, and Warren Spahn led the league in pitching victories with 23.

1954-Bobby Thomson suffered a broken ankle in spring training and forced the Braves to try a young infielder by the name of Hank Aaron in the outfield. Aaron batted .280 with 13 homers as the Braves finished third.

1956-Hank Aaron won the batting title with a .328 average, but the Braves lost the pennant to the Dodgers on the final day of the season.

1957- The Braves won the pennant and World Series. Hank Aaron was the league MVP, leading the N.L. in homers and RBI, but it was late-season call-ups Wes Covington and Bob "Hurricane" Hazle who sparked the Braves. Replacing injured players, Covington hit 21 homers, and Hazle batted .403 down the stretch. Aaron batted .393 and Lew Burdette won three games as the Braves beat the Yankees in the Series. Spahn won the Cy Young Award.

1958-In the year the Dodgers and Giants went West, the pennant stayed in Milwaukee. Mathews and Aaron combined for 61 homers, Spahn and Burdette for 42 pitching victories to lead the way. However, the Yankees won the World Series, four games to three.

1959-It required a post-season playoff for the Los Angeles Dodgers to supplant the Braves as N.L. champs. Mathews led the league in homers with 46, Aaron in hitting with a .355 average. Burdette and Spahn won 21 games each. This also was the year Pittsburgh's Harvey Haddix pitched 12 perfect innings against the Braves only to lose the game on a homer by Joe Adcock in the 13th.

1960-Aaron led the league in RBI with 126 and Spahn in victories with 21, but the Braves finished second to Pittsburgh.

1961-Spahn again led the league in wins with 21, but the Braves fell to fourth place in the standings.

1963-Aaron just missed the triple crown, leading the league in homers with 44 and RBI with 130. Tommy Davis of the Dodgers won the batting title with a .326 average to Aaron's .319.

1964-The Braves finished fifth in spite of having five players hit 20 homers or more; Aaron (24), Mathews (23), Rico Carty (22), Denis Menke (20) and Joe Torre (20).

1965-The Braves' move to Atlanta was halted by a court order, forcing a lame duck season in Milwaukee. The Braves led the league with 196 homers.

1966-The Braves and Pirates debuted Major League baseball's first season in Atlanta on April 12, with Pittsburgh winning, 3-2, in 13 innings. Atlanta was fifth in its initial season, but Aaron hit 44 homers and had 127 RBI to lead the league in those departments.

1967-Aaron hit 39 homers to again lead the league, but the Braves fell to 7th in the league standings.

1968-In the year of the pitcher, Aaron still managed 29 homers, and the Braves climbed to fifth in the league standings.

1969-The Braves marked the first year of division play by winning the West. Phil Niekro won 23 games, while Aaron slugged 44 homers and knocked in 97 runs. However, the Braves lost to the Miracle Mets in the playoffs, three games to none.

1970-Rico Carty won the batting title with a .366 average, and Hank Aaron, in addition to collecting 38 homers, realized a milestone by getting his 3,000th career hit. But the Braves dropped to fifth in the N.L. West.

1971-Aaron hit his 600th career homer, this one in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium off the Giants' Gaylord Perry. After hitting an Atlanta rookie record 33 homers, Earl Williams won BBWAA Rookie-of-the-Year honors.

1972-Manager Luman Harris was replaced during the season by future Hall of Fame third baseman Eddie Mathews. The team finished fourth. The Braves also hosted the All-Star Game in Atlanta for the first time.

1973-The Braves produced three hitters who belted 40 or more home runs, Dave Johnson (43), Darrell Evans (41) and Hank Aaron (40). Aaron climbed to within one homer of tying Babe Ruth for the all-time career record of 714, while Johnson hit 42 of his as a second baseman, tying Rogers Hornsby for the Major League record for most homers in a season by a second baseman. Phil Niekro no-hit the Padres, winning 9-0. Lack of pitching dropped the Braves into fifth place in the standings.

1974-Hank Aaron tied Babe Ruth the first time he swung the bat, connecting on April 4, off Cincinnati's Jack Billingham. Four days later he broke the record with No. 715 against Dodgers' lefty Al Downing. Ralph Garr led the league in hitting with a .353 average, and Buzz Capra was the ERA leader with his 2.28 mark.

1975-The season was comparatively uneventful, but in January of the off-season it became official that television magnate Ted Turner purchased the club.

1976-The Braves shook the baseball world by signing pitcher Andy Messersmith, who during the off-season won his free agency in court.

1977-Ted Turner decided to become team manager during a 17-game losing streak. He lost to Pittsburgh, 2-1 at the Pirates' Three Rivers Stadium. Turner's tenure in the dugout lasted only one game as Commissioner Bowie Kuhn banished him upstairs.

1978-Larry McWilliams and Gene Garber stopped Pete Rose's hitting streak at 44 games. Bob Horner, the nation's No. 1 draft choice, signed with the Braves and made the jump from the Arizona State campus to the majors and won the Rookie-of-the-Year award.

1979-Phil Niekro achieved his 200th career victory by beating the Pirates at Pittsburgh. Niekro won 21 games. Tragically, Director of Player Personnel Bill Lucas, who functioned as the Braves' general manager, died from a brain hemorrhage at age 43 on May 5th.

1980-Manager Bobby Cox moved Dale Murphy to the outfield, and he responded with 33 homers, 89 RBI.

1981-A players' strike spoiled the season, costing the Major Leagues a total of 713 games.

1982-Dale Murphy, winning the first of two consecutive MVP awards, paced the Braves to a West Division title by hitting 36 homers and knocking in 109 runs. The Braves set a Major League record at the time by winning their first 13 games of the year. However, they lost to the Cardinals in the League Championship Series. Former Braves star Hank Aaron was elected to the Hall of Fame.

1983-Murphy won the MVP award again, but the Braves finished second, three games back. They attracted an Atlanta-record 2,119,935 fans.

1984-Murphy hit 36 homers for the third straight year to tie Mike Schmidt for the league lead.

1985-Rick Mahler reeled off victories in his first seven starts and Dale Murphy enjoyed another banner season with 37 homers, but the club finished fifth in the N.L. West.

1986-Dale Murphy's consecutive-game streak came to an end July 9th at 740 games. Bob Horner hit four homers in an 11-8 loss to Montreal, July 6.

1987-Though the team finished with a 69-92 record, the Braves posted their best offensive numbers in 14 seasons, paced by Dale Murphy's .295 average, 105 RBI and career-high 44 homers.

1988-Russ Nixon took over as manager of the Braves May 23 as the club struggled to a 12-27 record under Chuck Tanner. First baseman Gerald Perry finished with a .300 batting average (5th in N.L.) and a team-high 29 stolen bases.

1989-The Braves finished at 63-97, a nine-game improvement over the previous season. Lonnie Smith shook off the effects of an ankle injury to hit .315 (third in the N.L.) with career highs in HR (21) and RBI (79). His performance earned him league Comeback-Player-of-the-Year honors.

1990-The Braves created shock waves August 4 when they traded Dale Murphy, one of the most respected athletes in Atlanta history, to the Philadelphia Phillies for Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher and Victor Rosario. The move enabled David Justice to return to right field and he responded with 20 home runs and 50 RBI over the last two months. Justice wound up hitting .282 with 28 homers and 78 RBI, enough to earn him Rookie-of-the-Year accolades.

1991-The Braves made history by becoming the first team ever to reach the World Series just one season after having baseball's worst record. Although the team stumbled into the All-Star break 9.5 games behind the first-place Dodgers, they were able to slice seven games off the lead in the first 12 days after the break. What followed was a thrilling stretch drive during which the Braves and Dodgers were never separated by more than 2.5 games after August 10. Among many clutch performances were the N.L.'s first-ever combined no-hitter by Kent Mercker, Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena on September 11 vs. San Diego and David Justice's game-winning, two-run homer off Rob Dibble on October 1, capping a comeback from a 6-0, first-inning deficit. The Braves finally clinched the division title on October 5, after an eight-game winning streak, the first six coming on the road, to set Atlanta records of 94 wins (including a 55-28 mark in the second half) and 2,140,217 in attendance.

Steve Avery was the MVP of the NLCS after tossing a record 16.1 consecutive scoreless innings to lead the Braves to a seven-game triumph. Mark Lemke then turned the World Series into a personal showcase by hitting .417 and helping push the Twins all the way to Game 7, a heartbreaking, 1-0 loss in 10 innings.

Tom Glavine won the Cy Young Award; Terry Pendleton won the batting title and was named N.L. MVP; Bobby Cox became the BBWAA and AP N.L. Manager-of-the-Year; Schuerholz earned UPI N.L. Executive-of-the-Year honors; and BASEBALL AMERICA honored Atlanta by naming it the Organization-of-the-Year.

1992-Francisco Cabrera's 9th-inning, two-out, two-run, pinch-hit single and Sid Bream's photo finish slide at home plate gave Atlanta a stunning 3-2 triumph over the Pirates and sent the Braves to their second consecutive World Series. The Braves became the first NL team to win back-to-back pennants since the 1977-78 Dodgers, while setting a new franchise record with a major league-leading 98 victories. On May 27, the Braves resided in last place with a 20-27 mark, 7.0 games behind front-running San Francisco. The team then proceeded to rip off 21 wins in 24 games en route to finishing the season with an amazing 78-37 (.678) run over the duration of the campaign. Included in this blitz was a 13-game winning streak from July 8-25, which tied the franchise record set in 1982. The Braves finally moved into first place July 22, then were tied for the top spot on two occasions before gaining the lead for good on August 2.

The Braves led the league in ERA (3.14) for the first time since 1958. For the second straight year, Tom Glavine won 20 games, including a 13-game winning streak, which established a modern day Braves' record. John Smoltz won a career-high 15 games, and became the first Braves' hurler to lead the NL in strikeouts (215) since Phil Niekro in 1977. Pendleton produced another outstanding season, collecting a career-high 105 RBI while hitting .311. His 39 doubles set an Atlanta record and his 199 hits were tied for first in the loop.

Atlanta then met Toronto in the first International World Series, with the Blue Jays prevailing in six games. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 with five stolen bases. Nonetheless, the Braves repeated as league champions for the first time since 1957-58.

1993-After one of the most pulsating stretch runs in baseball history, the Braves became the first team to win the N.L. West for three consecutive years when they captured the division over the Giants on the season's final day. The Braves set a franchise record with 104 victories, leading the majors in wins for the second straight season. Atlanta played 54-19 ball (.740) after the All-Star break, the third-best second half in major league history and overcame a 10-game deficit as of July 22. The surge coincided with the July acquisition of Fred McGriff from San Diego, with the Braves going 51-17 (.750) after McGriff joined the lineup. McGriff's first game as a Brave on July 20 will always be remembered in Atlanta as the night of the pre-game press box fire at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium; McGriff's homer in the contest ignited the Braves from a 5-0 deficit to an 8-5 win over the Cardinals.

McGriff (37, 101) joined David Justice (40, 120) and Ron Gant (36, 117) to give the Braves the first trio of 100+ RBI men in the N.L. since the Braves' 1970 lineup of Aaron, Cepeda and Carty. The Braves led the league in homers (168) and ERA (3.14) for the second straight season, the first team to do so in consecutive years since the 1977-78 Dodgers. Atlanta's "Fab Four" starting rotation lived up to expectations, with Greg Maddux winning his second consecutive Cy Young Award after posting a 20-10 mark with a 2.36 ERA. Tom Glavine (22-6, 3.20 ERA) became the first N.L. pitcher to win 20+ games for three straight years since Ferguson Jenkins hurled six consecutive 20+ win seasons from 1967-72. Steve Avery (18-6, 2.94 ERA) matched his career-high in victories, and John Smoltz (15-11, 3.62 ERA) gave the Braves four 15-game winners for the first time this century. Jeff Blauser (.305) became the first Brave shortstop to hit over .300 since Alvin Dark in 1948 and set a franchise mark for runs scored (110) by a shortstop. Terry Pendleton recovered from a slow start to knock in 84 runs, while Mike Stanton (27 saves), Rookie-of-the-Year runner-up Greg McMichael (2-3, 2.06 ERA, 19 saves) and Steve Bedrosian (1.63 ERA) led the relief corps. The team drew a franchise-record 3,884,720.

1994- The Braves opened the campaign in the newly aligned National League attempting to capture their fourth straight division crown in their new home, the N.L. East. The Braves began the season in record fashion, winning their first seven games, all on the road. It was the second best start in Atlanta history and a modern N.L. record for consecutive wins on a season-opening road trip. Kent Mercker no-hit the Dodgers, 6-0, April 8 in Los Angeles. The Braves equalled their Atlanta-best 13-1 start, which included tying a team record 10 straight road wins. The Braves set an Atlanta record for runs scored in their 19-5 victory at Chicago April 15. In that game Atlanta hit back-to-back-to-back homers and duplicated the accomplishment three days later to become the first team in major league history to achieve the feat twice within that short a time frame. Bobby Cox became the 41st manager in major league history to win at least 1,000 games with a 6-5 victory June 17 vs. Cincinnati. Fred McGriff, David Justice and Greg Maddux represented Atlanta in the All-Star game in Pittsburgh. Maddux started for the National League, and McGriff captured the MVP award after he hit a three-run homer in the ninth inning to tie the game at 7-7. (The NL won in 10 innings, 8-7.) McGriff hit his 30th homer August 5 at Cincinnati to become the ninth player in major league history to hit at least 30 home runs in seven or more straight seasons. He led the team in homers (34), batting average (.318), RBI (94), runs scored (81) and 2B (25).

Maddux also reached the record books by becoming the first player in major league history to win three straight Cy Young Awards. Maddux finished 16-6, tied for the lead league in wins, and led the league in ERA (1.56), complete games (10), innings pitched (202.0) and opponents batting average against (.207). For the third consecutive season, the Braves led the N.L. in homers with 137. They also finished second in the league with a 3.57 ERA.

The Braves were second in the N.L. East, 6.0 games behind Montreal, when the players went on strike after the games of August 11, cancelling the playoffs and World Series for the first time since 1904.

1995- The Braves validated their label as the "Team of the '90's" by winning their first World Series in 38 years. The world championship was the first for the city of Atlanta in a major professional sport, while the Braves also entered the record books as the first franchise to win the World Series in three different cities. Atlanta overcame a 23-20 start (3rd place, 5.0 GB) to post a 67-34 (.663) mark from June 14 through the remainder of the regular season, running away with the N.L. East title by 21.0 games. By winning the division, the Braves became the first N.L. team to finish first in four consecutive completed seasons since the 1921-24 New York Giants.

Atlanta's pitching lived up to expectations, leading the majors with a 3.44 ERA; the Braves' staff became the first to lead the majors in ERA for three straight completed seasons since the Baltimore Orioles topped the majors from 1969 through 1972. Greg Maddux claimed his unprecedented fourth straight Cy Young Award, going 19-2 with a 1.63 ERA, becoming the first starting pitcher since Walter Johnson in 1918-19 to record an ERA of less than 1.70 in two consecutive seasons. He ended the season with a major league record 18-game winning streak on the road (including an 0.99 ERA) dating back to July, '94. Mark Wohlers emerged as the dominant closer the Braves had sought throughout the '90's, saving 25 games, including 21 straight chances between May 15 and September 3. Fred McGriff (27), David Justice (24), Ryan Klesko (23) and Rookie of the Year runnerup Chipper Jones (23) became the first Braves foursome to hit over 20 homers in a season since 1973, and Javy Lopez matched Joe Torre's 1966 record for the best average by an Atlanta catcher with a .315 mark.

Last at-bat wins were the trademark of the '95 Braves, with Atlanta winning an N.L.-best 25 games in this fashion, including 18 after July 3. The Braves led the majors with 31 one-run victories, and went on to notch another seven victories in the post-season by one run and/or in their last at-bat.

Atlanta beat the Rockies three games to one in the Division Series, and routed the Reds in the first-ever four-game sweep of an NLCS, before winning the world title with a six-game triumph over the Indians, climaxed by Series MVP Tom Glavine's one-hitter over eight innings and David Justice's decisive sixth-inning homer in the 1-0 finale.

1996- The Braves made their fourth trip to the World Series out of the last five played, but were unable to defend their world title as the Yankees took the championship in six games. In their final season at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, the Braves took over first place for good on May 19, en route to winning the NL East by 8.0 games. The division crown was Atlanta's fifth straight, marking the first time a National League team has registered five straight first-place finishes. Braves bowed out of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium by setting a franchise mark with 56 home wins, topping the old record of 51, set three times previously. Atlanta's .270 team BA was its best since hitting .272 in 1983, while the club's 197 homers were third-most in Atlanta history, trailing only the teams of 1966 (207) and 1973 (206). The pitching staff set a major league record by fanning 1,245 batters, breaking the Astros' major league mark of 1,221 set in 1969; the staff also allowed the fewest walks in the majors, issuing only 451 free passes. By going 12-15 in September, team ended a stretch of playing .500+ ball for 21 straight months since April, 1993.

John Smoltz continued the Braves' Cy Young reign, as the righthander fashioned a breakthrough season, going 24-8 with a 2.94 ERA. He set modern day franchise records with his 276 strikeouts and a 14-game winning streak, and established an Atlanta mark with his 24 victories. Smoltz lost his opening start, then went 14-0 with a 1.83 ERA over his next 15 outings. Greg Maddux didn't win a fifth straight Cy Young Award, but went 15-11 with a 2.72 ERA, while Tom Glavine went 15-10 with a 2.98 ERA and won his 3rd Silver Slugger Award. Mark Wohlers shattered Gene Garber's 1982 franchise record of 30 saves by notching 39 of his own in 44 opportunities, and also recorded 100 strikeouts in 77.1 IP. Stellar years at the plate were enjoyed by Chipper Jones (30-110-.309), Fred McGriff (28-107-.295), Ryan Klesko (34-93-.282) and Marquis Grissom (23-74-.308). Grissom won his 4th consecutive Gold Glove Award and collected a career high 207 hits, becoming the first Brave to reach the 200 mark since Ralph Garr had 214 in 1974. Grissom set a franchise record with 671 AB, and compiled a 28-game hitting streak (49 x 127, .386) July 25-Aug. 24; it was the longest streak by a Brave since Rowland Office hit in 29 straight in 1976, and the third-longest in Atlanta history. On June 2 at Cincinnati he also became the first Brave to complete a straight steal of home since Ed Miller performed the feat in 1979. Other offensive highlights included Jeff Blauser's 7-RBI game at Philadelphia May 11, the first by a Brave since Orlando Cepeda in 1970, Jermaine Dye's homer in his first major league AB May 17 vs. the Reds (the first debut HR by a Brave since Chuck Tanner in 1955), and a 18-1 rout of the Cubs May 20, providing the Braves' largest margin of victory in a contest since Boston beat St. Louis, 20-3, August 25, 1936. The 1996 season also saw the debut of 19-year-old phenom Andruw Jones on Aug. 15, who made the jump from A-ball to the majors in under two months. At 19 years, 3 months and 23 days, he became the fourth-youngest player in Atlanta history, and in his second game, the next day, he socked his first M.L. homer, becoming the youngest National Leaguer to go deep since Houston's Larry Dierker in 1965.

The Braves swept the Dodgers in three games in the Division Series then became the first team in history to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the NLCS, overcoming the St. Louis Cardinals. Atlanta took the final three contests by scores of 14-0, 3-1, and 15-0. By winning the first two World Series games in Yankee Stadium, the Braves appeared on their way to repeating as world champions, but saw New York capture the final four games and the title. The Braves organization was recognized by BASEBALL AMERICA as the Organization-of-the-Year for 1996, the second time since 1991.

1997- The Braves won a Major League high 101 games and an unprecedented sixth straight division title, but failed to reach the World Series for the first time since 1993 when the Marlins won the NLCS, four games to two. The six consecutive first-place finishes eclipsed the old mark of five straight set by the New York Yankees (1949-53) and the Oakland A's (1971-75). In their inaugural season at Turner Field, the Braves won 12 of their first 13 home games, and retained sole possession of first place from April 14 through the remainder of the season. The Braves set a Major League record for April with 19 victories, breaking the old mark of 18, set six times previously. The team clinched the N.L. East on September 22, finishing with a 9.0 game margin over Florida. Atlanta's pitching once again proved dominant, leading the majors with a 3.18 ERA and 17 shutouts. Fourth starter Denny Neagle turned in the National League's only 20-victory campaign, going 20-5 with a 2.97 ERA, while Greg Maddux (19-4, 2.20) narrowly missed the 20-win circle. John Smoltz (15-12, 3.02) led the National League with 256.0 innings pitched, and became the first pitcher in franchise history to notch at least 200 strikeouts in four seasons. Tom Glavine (14-7, 2.96 ERA) was one of four Braves starters to rank in the top 10 in the N.L. in ERA. Glavine was named the National League's Pitcher of the Month for April after going 4-0 with a 1.64 ERA, while becoming the first pitcher to record two career shutouts at Colorado's Coors Field. Mark Wohlers became the first Braves pitcher to notch consecutive 30+save seasons, while fanning 92 in 69.1 innings pitched. On offense, the Braves reached the .270 mark for the second straight year, a feat they hadn't accomplished since 1947-48. Most noteworthy were the 12 grand slams hit by the squad, setting a Major League record, featuring 3 by Chipper Jones in a span of 13 contests, setting the NL record for 3 slams in the fewest team games. C. Jones posted another solid season (21-111-.295), with 20 stolen bases, and became the first Braves third baseman to drive in 100+ runs in consecutive seasons since Eddie Mathews in 1959-60. Ryan Klesko led the squad with 24 homers, followed by Javy Lopez (23), Fred McGriff (22), and C. Jones (21). Jeff Blauser added 17 homers, while batting .308. The offense exploded for 9 run-innings twice in 12 games (June 22 and July 3), after not having performed the feat since 1989. Grand slams by Ryan Klesko and Tim Lincecum on July 14 vs. the Phillies marked only the fifth occasion in franchise history that the Braves hit 2 slams in a contest. Quartet of Maddux-Neagle-Glavine-Smoltz excelled in August, not allowing more than 3 ER in any of their final 19 starts of the month. Neagle joined the 20-game winners circle for the first time in his career with a 4-0 combined shutout at San Diego September 7. Maddux ended the season with a sensational ratio of 19 wins to 20 walks, with 6 of those being intentional. Rafael Belliard made headlines when he belted his first homer in more than 10 years, a 2-run blast Sept. 26 at New York. In the post-season, Atlanta swept 3 games from Houston in the Division Series, giving the Braves a 9-1 mark in Division Series competition. Competing in a record 6th straight National League Championship Series, the Braves lost to the Marlins in 6 games, marking the first time a team other than Atlanta represented the National League in the World Series since 1993.

1998- The Braves set a franchise record with 106 victories, and extended their own records by winning a seventh straight division title and appearing in a seventh consecutive LCS, but fell short of the World Series once again as the Padres took the NLCS, four games to two. Atlanta's 106 victories were tied for the sixth most in NL history, as the team clicked on all cylinders throughout the season, evidenced by a franchise record 215 homers, a Major League leading 3.25 ERA, and an NL-high and franchise-record .985 fielding percentage. The offense tied a Major League record by homering in 25 straight games April 18-May 13 and set a post-1900 record with 826 runs, while the Braves became only the third franchise in Major League history to produce four 30-homer players in one season (joining 1977 and 1997 Dodgers, and 1995-97 Colorado Rockies). Andres Galarraga dispelled a widely held theory that his recent home run totals with the Rockies were inflated by playing 81 games at Coors Field by belting 44 homers, an increase of six over his 1997 total. Chipper Jones set career highs with 34 homers, a .313 BA, and 123 runs scored and became the first Brave to knock in 100+ RBI for three straight seasons since Dale Murphy did it four years in a row 1982-85. Javy Lopez set career highs with 34 homers, and 106 RBI, while leading all Major League catchers with a .995 fielding percentage. His 34 home runs and 106 RBI set Braves franchise records for a catcher (Joe Torre hit 36 homers in 1966, but only 31 as a catcher, while nearly half of Torre's 109 RBI in 1964 came as a first baseman). Andruw Jones rebounded from a slow start (.204 through April) to become the sixth-youngest player in Major League history to reach the 30-homer mark, ending the campaign with 31 homers, 90 RBI and 27 stolen bases; he also became the youngest 20-20 player in major league history, a record established by the Astros' Cesar Cedeno in 1972, and captured his first Gold Glove in center field. The pitching staff, in addition to leading the majors in ERA, also paced both leagues with 24 complete games, 23 shutouts, and 1,232 strikeouts, the second-highest total in Major League history, behind only the '96 Braves staff (1,245). Tom Glavine produced the staff's sixth Cy Young Award since 1991 by going 20-6 with a career-low 2.47 ERA, while all five members of the rotation won 16 or more games; the only other team in Major League history to perform the feat was the 1902 Pittsburgh Pirates. The rotation as a whole included Major League leaders in wins (Glavine's 20 were tied for first), ERA (Greg Maddux at 2.22, his fourth ERA title in six seasons) and winning percentage (John Smoltz went 17-3 for an .850 winning percentage). Two individual milestones attained by Braves pitchers were Dennis Martinez becoming the winningest Latin American pitcher in Major League history when he registered his 244th career victory in a 7-5 decision at San Francisco August 9, and Maddux notching his 200th career win in an 8-4 triumph over the Giants August 18. Kerry Ligtenberg took over the closer's role in the bullpen and went 30-for-34 in save opportunities, becoming the first NL rookie since Cards' Todd Worrell in 1986 to post 30 saves in a campaign. The defense led the loop in fielding for the first time since 1969, committing a league-low 91 errors. After winning the NL East by 18.0 games over the Mets, Braves beat the Cubs in three games for their third straight Division Series sweep, before losing the NLCS in six games for the second straight year, this time to the Padres.

Braves Best Pitching Starts

In research dating back to 1900, Elias Sports Bureau found the following Braves who had gotten off to successful starts at the beginning of their seasons.

Warren Spahn	8-0 in 1947, in 8 starts plus a no-decision in relief during that stretch.
Jim Wilson	8-0 in 1954, in 8 consecutive starts.
Ed Brandt	8-0 in 1931, in consecutive starts, all complete games.
Larry McWilliams	7-0 in 1978 for best Atlanta start. He was not called up from minors until July 17, so this streak was not at start of season but was a win streak that began the season for McWilliams.
Rick Mahler	7-0 in 1985, in 7 consecutive starts.
Pete Smith	7-0 in 1992, in 11 starts.
Tom Glavine	7-0 in 1993, in 10 starts.

Pascual Perez	5-0 in 1983, in consecutive starts.
Tom Glavine	5-0 in 1989, in 7 starts.
Mark Wohlers	5-0 in 1994, all in relief.

1999 Miscellaneous Information

In Memoriam Scott McGregor 1957 - 1998

Scott McGregor, one of the Braves' official scorers from 1994 through last season, died at his home at the age of 41 in October of 1998, a victim of pancreatic cancer.

Although McGregor worked in the Braves press box for just five years, he made his presence felt. Working at a difficult task which requires sound judgment and quick decision making, he was nothing if not fair. His calls didn't always please everyone, but no one could accuse him of bias. His passion for baseball was obvious and his quick wit kept those around him entertained.

After missing several weeks because of his illness, Scott returned to work the Braves-New York Mets game on Sept. 26. He attempted to score the next day, the Braves' last game of the regular season, but his deteriorating health prevented it. He passed away October 14, the day the Braves and the Padres played Game 6 of the NLCS.

McGregor isn't the only familiar figure absent from the Braves' press box this year. Boyd Odum, a special assignment scout for the Pittsburgh Pirates, died of a heart attack in July of 1998; Bob Hartsfield, a special assignment scout for the San Francisco Giants, passed away in January of 1999. Both were Turner Field regulars. And, Jerry Schwartz, who covered the Braves as head of the Atlanta Bureau of The New York Times, died last November.

They will be missed.

Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining an Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining the Percentage of Games Won and Lost: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Determining a Major League Year: A full year of service in the Major Leagues constitutes 172 days.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Disabled Lists:

15-DAY DISABLED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY DISABLED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

MLB Waiver Rule

Baseball's waiver year runs from November 11 to November 10 with three waiver periods within each year.

First Waiver Period: November 11 to 30th day of subsequent regular season.

Second Waiver Period: 31st day of regular season to July 31.

Third Waiver Period: August 1 to November 10.

To make a trade with a National or American League Club, major league waivers are required only from August 1 until the day following the close of the regular season. Waivers are not required during any other time of year.

The contract of a player placed on waivers may be claimed by any other major league club. If a claim is made and the club requesting waivers does not withdraw the request, the contract shall be assigned to the claiming club. If more than one club in the same league files a claim, assignment shall be made to the claiming club of the lowest standing in the league. If claiming clubs are in different leagues, the preference for the waiver claim shall always go to clubs in the same league as the requesting club and to the claiming club of the lowest standing in that league.

Major League Waivers may be requested prior to 2:00 P.M. est., Monday through Friday (holidays excepted) and claims may be filed until 2:00 P.M. on the third business day following the date of the waiver request. If no claims are filed, the secured waivers are in effect through the close of the particular waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers may be requested at any time without restriction.

Special Waivers (Sept. 1 to 30th day of subsequent regular season) or Outright Waivers (31st day of regular season to Aug. 31) must be secured prior to making an outright assignment of a player contract to a National Association Club. If secured, Special Waivers are in effect for seven calendar days and Outright Waivers are in effect until the close of the waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers, Special Waivers and Outright Waivers are irrevocable and may not be withdrawn after they have been requested.

In some cases, Major League Waivers must be secured prior to the optional assignment of a player contract to the National Association. Generally, waivers are required as of the third anniversary of the date the player first reported for major league service, less one year for each option charged to the player at the time he first reported.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The final game took place on October 24, 1996 when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in the fifth game of the World Series. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' down the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' with a capacity of 52,769.

Turner Field Firsts - First pitch by Denny Neagle at 7:47 P.M...The Cubs' Brian McRae was the first batter...Kenny Lofton was the first Braves' batter...First hit was by Chipper Jones...Michael Tucker had the first home run...Chipper Jones had the first stolen base...Brad Clontz secured the first victory and Mark Wohlers recorded the first save...First error was by Fred McGriff.

History – The 1996 Olympic Stadium, built just south of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility between September, 1996, and April, 1997. AFC Stadium was imploded in August of 1997 and the site is being converted into a parking lot in time for the 1998 season.

Location – Between Ralph David Abernathy on the north, Hank Aaron Drive on the east, Bill Lucas Drive on the south and Pollard Blvd. on the west. It's very near the junction of I-75-85 and I-20.

Seating – Three levels supported by four concourses. A cross-aisle walkway divides the lower concourse. Field level and dugout seats are below the cross-aisle, the terrace level above it. The second level, the club level, includes 58 private suites, three party suites and the 755 Club, the ballpark's private membership club. The third, or upper, level does not go all around the park, providing the fans there with a view of the downtown Atlanta skyline.

Playing Field – Prescription Athletic Turf, featuring a state-of-the-art mechanical drainage system and hybrid Bermuda grass. The turf for the playing field is grown in an area below the scoreboard beyond the center field wall.

Entry Plaza – The main entry to Turner Field, it was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track and field complex of the Olympic Stadium were removed. The plaza features statues of Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro and Ty Cobb, monuments of the Braves' retired numbers, a huge video screen that shows the Braves game, a video wall broadcasting every other major league game in progress, photo kiosks, a Kids Zone, a retail store and a variety of concession stands.

Scouts Alley – Located just off the Entry Plaza, it contains life-size visuals of notable Braves and their original scouting reports, interactive skills and educational activities for youth and the Braves Museum and Hall of Fame, a project of the Atlanta History Center and the Braves.

Parking – 8,500 official spaces. The lot on the site of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium contains an outline of the playing field, including markers for home plate, the bases and the location of Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th home run.

Scoreboard and Sound System – A 29-foot-by-38-foot Panasonic video screen and a 32-foot-by-64-foot Daktronics scoreboard. The speakers in each seating section are independently controlled.

Disabled Seating – The entire ballpark is wheelchair accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act. More than one percent of the total seating capacity is allocated for disabled seating.

2000 All-Star Game

The Atlanta Braves and the city of Atlanta are excited about hosting the 71st Mid-Summer Classic on July 11, 2000. Turner Field will play host to the city's second All-Star Game. Atlanta last hosted the game on July 25, 1972. The 1972 All-Star logo is depicted in the background. The National League won that game, 4-3, in 10 innings on Joe Morgan's RBI single.

Atlanta came out to see the stars of both the American and National leagues for the 43rd classic: Rod Carew of the Minnesota Twins, Brooks Robinson and Jim Palmer of the Orioles, Reggie Jackson and Jim "Catfish" Hunter of the Oakland A's, Carl Yastrzemski of the Red Sox, Nolan Ryan of the California Angels, Johnny Bench and Morgan of the Reds, Joe Torre, Bob Gibson and Lou Brock of the Cardinals, Don Sutton of the Dodgers, Tom Seaver of the Mets and hometown hero, Hank Aaron.

The All-Stars played in front of a sellout crowd of 53,107, then an Atlanta Stadium record. Aaron put the NL in the lead, 2-1, with a two-run home run off Cleveland's Gaylord Perry in the bottom of the sixth. The AL regained the lead in the eighth on a two-run, pinch-hit home run from Kansas City's Cookie Rojas. Trailing, 3-2, in the bottom of the ninth, Lee May grounded into a RBI-force out after back-to-back singles by the Cubs' Billy Williams and the Pirates' Manny Sanguillen to tie the game and send it to the 10th inning. Morgan drove in Nate Colbert of the Padres with the winning run in the 10th. The Mets' Tug McGraw, who shut out the AL in the ninth and 10th, earned the victory.

The Atlanta Braves look forward to hosting the fans and players of Major League Baseball next July. Turner Field will provide an exciting atmosphere for fans of all ages during their All-Star visit. The city will host the All-Star Fan Fest, the popular Home Run Contest and open workouts for the fans during the two-day celebration.
